Note: Those required to file a tax return must do so before financial aid can be processed. If unsure whether you should have filed taxes, review Do I Need to File a Tax Return on the IRS.gov website.

You indicated on your 2024-2025 FAFSA that you and/or your spouse did not file taxes in 2022. Select one option that applies to you and/or your spouse and provide all required documentation for your selection.

Option 1: The person indicated was not required to file and did not file a 2022 tax return, but did have earnings.

- Student  Student's spouse

Required documentation:

- Copies of all 2022 W-2s or a 2022 Wage and Income Transcript from the IRS (if self-employed, attach a statement listing the income earned through self-employment).
- List of income received from each employer:

Employee name	Employer name	Amount of income
_____	_____	_____

- Check here if you did NOT enter parent information on your FAFSA and you or your spouse earned foreign income and would have filed a tax return with a foreign tax authority.

Option 2: The person indicated was not required to file and did not file a 2022 tax return, and had no earnings.

- Student  Student's spouse

- Check here if you did NOT enter parent information on your FAFSA and you or your spouse would have filed a tax return with a foreign tax authority.

Option 3: The person indicated reported Non Tax Filer status in error and were required to file a 2022 tax return.

- Student  Student's spouse

Required documentation: Tax payer's signed 2022 IRS 1040 Tax Return form, and all 2022 tax schedules.
