Note: Those required to file a tax return must do so before financial aid can be processed. If unsure whether you should have filed taxes, review Do I Need to File a Tax Return on the IRS.gov website.

You indicated on your 2025-2026 FAFSA that you and/or your spouse did not file taxes in 2023. Select one option that applies to each reported non-filer and provide all required documentation for your selection.

Option 1: The student or spouse was not required to file and did not file a 2023 tax return, but did have earnings.

- Student  Student spouse

Required actions:

- ✓ Submit copies of all 2023 W-2s and 1099s or a 2023 Wage and Income Transcript from the IRS (If self-employed, attach a statement listing the income earned through self-employment)
- ✓ List all sources and amounts of gross earnings, resources, and other income of income that supported the student/student's spouse in 2023:

| Employee name | Employer or source of income | Amount of income |
|---------------|------------------------------|------------------|
| _____         | _____                        | _____            |
| _____         | _____                        | _____            |
| _____         | _____                        | _____            |

- Check here if you did NOT enter parent information on your FAFSA and you or your spouse earned foreign income and would have filed a tax return with a tax authority other than the IRS.

Option 2: The student or spouse was not required to file and did not file a 2023 tax return, and had no earnings.

- Student  Student spouse

- Check here if you did NOT enter parent information on your FAFSA and you or your spouse would have filed a tax return with a tax authority other than the IRS.

Option 3: The student or spouse reported Non-Tax Filer status in error and was required to file a 2023 tax return.

- Student  Student spouse

Required Actions:

- ✓ Submit taxpayer's signed 2023 IRS 1040 Tax Return form, and all 2023 tax schedules
